

*Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor*

Whereas, Jane (Olivier) Hamdorf was born May 19, 1925, to Paul and Ida Olivier; and,

Whereas, Birthdays commemorate the first day of our lives, and we celebrate the birthdays of those we love as we recognize the joys and sorrows we have shared, the strength we have gained from the obstacles and hardships we have conquered, and the small daily pleasures life offers; and,

Whereas, Jane is the proud mother of four daughters: Bonnie, Linda, Peggy and Paulette, who in turn blessed her with 10 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Jane began working for the Kresge Company and continued with the first Kmart that was built in Sioux Falls, retiring in 1989; and,

Whereas, Jane enjoys embroidery, collecting coffee mugs and Dutch memorabilia in her spare time; and,

Whereas, Jane will observe her 80th Birthday with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants, as her friends and relatives gather on June 25, 2005, to honor her and celebrate her life and the camaraderie of the day; and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a woman who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 19, 2005, as in South Dakota, and I join all her friends and relatives in wishing her a very happy birthday, good health, and great happiness.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Tenth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
